

PUBLIC HOLIDAY

Monday 13 March 2017

CANBERRA DAY

Canberra Day is a public holiday held annually on the second Monday in March in the Australian Capital Territory (ACT) to celebrate the official naming of Canberra.

Canberra was named at a ceremony on 12 March 1913 by Lady Denman, the wife of the then Governor-General Lord Denman.

--REMINDER--

Parents/carers are reminded that children are only permitted to play on the school playground equipment when they are under the supervision of a teacher.

This is particularly important both before and after school.

Children are not permitted on the equipment before or after school.

We appreciate your co-operation in this important safety matter.

** REMINDER **

Students with Disability Survey - Closing soon

The Education Directorate is currently undertaking an evaluation of support for students with disability in Canberra public schools. To inform this work we are consulting with students, parents/carers, school staff, school leaders, and peak bodies on how we best support both students and schools.

Surveys and written submissions close this Friday, 10 March 2017

Links to the surveys, as well as information on how to contribute via a submission are at:

This event is part of FFA's Female Football Week, and an initiative to highlight the importance of women in leadership roles and in sport. Our Forum will be held as a Q&A session for attendees to ask questions and learn how our speakers navigated to their current roles. Speakers will include a female A-League referee, a current Matildas player, a female CEO and a professional sports analyst.

This event is an amazing opportunity for females and males of all ages to learn from strong women, and become empowered to take on leadership roles.

You're invited
